

THE GHANA-CA
ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO
(GCAO)

FUNDRAISING FOR

The Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage & Resource Center

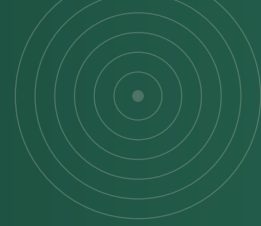

TORONTO, CANADA · 2026 EDITION

Together we build

ONE VOICE. ONE COMMUNITY CENTER.
THE TIME IS NOW.

A message from the GCAO President

Emmanuel C. Duodu

President, GCAO and AGCA

“If you want to go fast, go alone; if you want to go far, go together.”

My fellow community members, honoured guests, and friends of the Ghanaian-Canadian community,

Thank you for standing with us tonight.

For nearly fifty years, we have built something remarkable in Ontario. Not from bricks and mortar, but from one another. We have raised our children, cared for our elders, welcomed our newcomers and celebrated our culture, all without a permanent home to call our own. Tonight, we take the next step toward changing that.

The Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage and Resource Center is more than a building. It is a promise to our children, that they will always know where they come from; to our elders, that they will grow older surrounded by their community; and to every family, that there will be a place where they belong and can find help when they need it.

A project of this size must be built with care. We are working to acquire land and build it the right way. But no partner can do what only we can do: come together and give.

To the leaders in government and business with us tonight, you understand what it means to invest in a stronger, more connected Ontario. This Center will deliver affordable housing, care for our seniors, opportunity for our youth and support for our newcomers. We invite you to build it with us.

And to my community, this is our moment. As our elders remind us: if you want to go fast, go alone; if you want to go far, go together.

Let us go far. Together we build.

Emmanuel C. Duodu

President, GCAO and AGCA

Alliance of Ghanaian-Canadian Associations

GOODWILL MESSAGE

“United, the impacts of our efforts can and will cascade to local fronts.”

On behalf of the Alliance of Ghanaian-Canadian Associations (AGCA) Executives and National Advisory Council (NAC), I bring you greetings and best wishes for a successful fundraising dinner dance event. The Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage Center project is a visionary project that will serve generations to come upon completion.

The Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage Resource Center is a laudable initiative that highlights the great heights that can be achieved with a united front. AGCA seeks to ‘foster collaboration among member Associations and Stakeholders, for the socio-economic advancement and wellbeing of all’. It is in this spirit of collaboration that we stand with the Ghanaian-Canadian Association of Ontario (GCAO) to call on everyone from coast to coast, regardless of heritage, to dig deep and donate towards this project.

It is my hope that we continue to forge ahead in unity to address issues impacting our community that transcend geographic boundaries; to leverage best practices for the collective good; and to create and embrace opportunities that promote growth and advancement of our community members, especially our children and youth. Our Ghanaian-Canadian community is rife with talent, diverse skill sets, expertise, knowledge, and great potential. We are therefore well-placed for success.

As you all delight in the rich expression of culture, do not lose sight of the reason for which you are gathered: to unite, pool resources towards the construction of the Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage Center, and provide a safe welcoming environment for the delivery of culturally appropriate services. I am confident in our ability to collectively bring this project to fruition within a reasonable time frame. It is my hope that the GCAO model can be adopted by various AGCA Member Associations across the Nation in due time.

United, the impacts of our efforts can and will cascade to local fronts.

Please accept my best wishes for continued success.

Claudette Opoku-Achampong

Vice President, AGCA

A message from the GCAO Executive Board

Juliet Opoku

First Vice President, Ghanaian-Canadian Association of Ontario

“When we lift one another, we all rise.”

On behalf of the Executive Board, I extend a warm welcome and our heartfelt appreciation to everyone joining us for this important fundraising event.

GCAO is a community built on heritage, unity, service and a shared commitment to the well-being of our people. Our story is one of resilience and hope, carried by the families, professionals, entrepreneurs, volunteers, youth, seniors, women, men, newcomers and friends of Ghana who believe in the strength of our community. As we gather tonight, we are reminded that community is not simply where we come from; it is what we build together.

Our heritage connects us across regions, languages, faiths and generations. Whether we were born in Ghana or are the next generation growing up between cultures, we share one responsibility: to keep our heritage strong while creating pathways for those who come after us. Through service and collaboration, we support health and wellness, education and youth development, women’s empowerment and seniors’ engagement, newcomer integration, cultural preservation, and care for families facing hardship.

This is why your participation matters. Every contribution is an expression of solidarity, and every act of generosity strengthens us all. Fundraising, for us, is not simply about raising money. It is about raising possibilities: opportunity where there are barriers, a helping hand where there is need, investment in our young people and honour for our elders. When we lift one another, we all rise.

To every donor, sponsor, volunteer, partner and friend: thank you. Let us stand together, give together, serve together and build together, and create a legacy our children and grandchildren will be proud to inherit.

GCAO. Together we build.

With profound appreciation and warmest regards,

Juliet Opoku

First Vice President, GCAO

On behalf of the GCAO Executive Board

Figures as of September 2026.

About the Center

For nearly fifty years, our community has gathered in borrowed halls, churches and rented rooms. The Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage and Resource Center (GCHRC) will change that. It will be a home of our own in the Greater Toronto Area, built to bring our people together and to serve every generation, from our youngest children to our elders.

Led by the Ghanaian-Canadian Association of Ontario (GCAO) and established as a charitable organization with its own board and governance, the Center will be built with care and with the expertise a project of this size deserves. And while the Center grows from Ghanaian roots, its doors will be open to newcomers, neighbours and communities across Ontario.

OUR MISSION

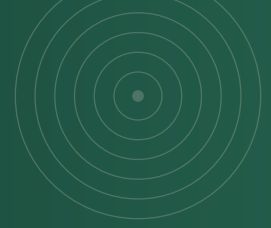

To build and run a true home for our community: a place that keeps our culture alive, welcomes every generation, and offers real, lasting help to our families and to the wider community.

OUR VISION

A united, thriving community with a place of its own, where our children learn who they are, our elders are cared for, and every Ghanaian-Canadian finds belonging, support and opportunity.

We build this together with

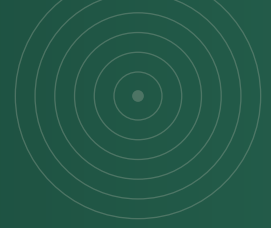

- 01 Traditional and area associations
- 02 Churches, mosques and faith communities
- 03 Professional associations
- 04 Businesses and entrepreneurs
- 05 Partners in government and institutions

What the Center will do

Under one roof, the GCHRC will:

- 01 Offer affordable homes and a gathering place that will always belong to us.
- 02 Bring our culture, learning and community life together in one place, for all ages.
- 03 Share the richness of Ghanaian and African heritage with all Canadians.
- 04 Help our children and youth grow up proud of who they are through mentorship, the arts, and homework and academic support.
- 05 Care for our elders by easing isolation and supporting healthy, active aging, with language, digital and financial literacy.
- 06 Walk with our youth and young adults through wellness and mental-health support, peer mentoring, sports and fitness.
- 07 Welcome and support newcomers as they settle, find work and build a life here.
- 08 Work hand in hand with government and community partners to bring real services to our people.

What it will mean for our community

When the doors open, the GCHRC will be a place where real help lives for our families and for the wider community, working alongside government at every level.

The GCHRC will be a place for:

- 01 Affordable homes, at a time when housing has never been harder to find
- 02 After-school help, tutoring and academic support for children, youth and newcomers
- 03 Safe spaces and positive paths for young people, so they belong and thrive
- 04 Job skills, employment support and new opportunities
- 05 Settlement and resettlement support for newcomers
- 06 Health, nutrition, wellness and mental-health programs
- 07 Care and companionship for our elders, so no one ages alone
- 08 Mentorship that connects our professionals and elders with the next generation
- 09 Everyday guidance on housing, tenancy and community life
- 10 A trusted place where community and government work together on childcare, our elders and housing

What's inside

Modern, welcoming and built to last, the GCHRC will bring together under one roof:

TO OUR FUNDRAISING PLANNING COMMITTEE AND GCAO LEADERSHIP

This evening would not have been possible without the dedication of our Fundraising Planning Committee and the leadership of the Ghanaian-Canadian Association of Ontario.

Behind every detail of tonight's event are countless hours, given freely: planning meetings after long working days, calls to sponsors and partners, and the careful work of bringing so many people together. You gave your time, your talents and your energy, in the spirit of service that has always defined our community.

To the GCAO Executive, our Board and the Leaders of our Wings: thank you for your vision and your steady hand. You have carried the dream of a Ghanaian-Canadian Heritage and Resource Center with patience and purpose, and you remind us what we can achieve when we stand together.

Your tireless work has made this event a success. More than that, it has brought us one step closer to a home of our own.

From all of us, thank you.

Together we build.
